The Vanishing Tower Elric 4

In The Vanishing Tower, Elric becomes a moody wanderer who is of few words but steeped in brooding introspection. It also has perhaps the clearest character development of any Elric novel in the series so far. The first Elric novel, Elric of Melniboné is perfectly paced and deeply enjoyable. It demonstrates an engaging and unique prose style that carries the story rapidly, and has a wide cast of interesting and believable characters.

Michael Moorcock's The Vanishing Tower, much like The Sailor on the Seas of Fate, is comprised of three novellas that are loosely linked. The loose tie between the three stories is Elric's antagonist, Theleb K'Aarna, who was introduced in "The Singing Citadel" in The Weird of the White Wolf, although Theleb K'Aarna's appearance in the final story amounts mostly to a framing mechanism for the focus of the tale.
